Rosemary O'Leary

A funeral mass was celebrated Tuesday in St. Anthony's Church for Mrs. Rosemary (Rosano) O'Leary, 65, of Cohasset, who died Friday at South Shore Hospital after a brief illness.

Burial was in Woodside Cemetery.

Mrs. O'Leary was born in Cohasset and lived in Wollaston and Marshfield before returning to Cohasset. She graduated from CHS and the Burdett Secretarial School in Boston. Mrs. O'Leary was a clerk for the state before retiring.

She belonged to the Scituate VFW Auxiliary, St. Anthony's Church, the Massachusetts State Employees Union and was a former member of St. Christine's Church in Marshfield.

Wife of the late John C. O'Leary, she leaves two brothers, Anthony and James, both of Cohasset; two sisters, Josephine Rosano and Mrs. Mary Fiori, both of Cohasset; and several nieces and nephews.

Ralph Farrell

A Mass of Christian Burial will be celebrated today, Thursday, at 10 a.m. at St. Anthony's Church for Ralph Guy Farrell, 58, of 59 Deep Run Road, who died Monday at home after a long illness.

Burial will be in Woodside Cemetery.

Mr. Farrell was born in Bridgeport, Conn., and lived in Rowayton, Conn., 17 years before moving to Cohasset 11 years ago.

Mr. Farrell graduated from Greenwich, Conn., schools, the Peddie School in New Jersey and attended Yale University. He was New England district manager for Farrell Lines Inc. of Boston.

Mr. Farrell belonged to the Boston Shipping Association, the Boston Marine Society, the Propeller Club of the U.S., the International Business Center of New England and the Foreign Service Club. Mr. Farrell won the 1979 National Maritime Day Award for Distinguished Service for promotion of the Port of Boston.

He was in the Merchant Marine during World War II.

Mr. Farrell leaves his wife, Viola; two sons, Kevin of New York and Thorn of Cohasset; two daughters, Karen and Mary Ellen, both of Cohasset; two brothers, William of Louisiana and Robert of Virginia; and a sister, Mrs. Helen O'Mara of Connecticut.

Memorial donations may be made to the American Cancer Society.

Music

Conservatory Has Fall Openings

The South Shore Conservatory of Music in Hingham has a few openings in the Pre-School program for next fall. Registrations are being accepted at the school Monday thru Friday from 9 a.m. to 5 p.m.

This popular nursery school is taught by trained pre-school specialists. It is unique in that a music specialist, educated in the Orff-Schulwerk method of early childhood music training, works with the children several times a week. For further information call 749-7565.
